

SOCINGA AFRICA BUSINESS COMPANY

HUMAN RESOURCES POLICY

We Commit to Investors – Clients – Employees – Customers – Consumers – Visitors and every person interacting with us that we as the Board, Senior Executing Management and founders we shall observe the contents of this policy found by us at all times.

Company Seal

Managing Directors Signature:

Oath Stamp and Signature

1. PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

- a) To give effect to Socinga Structural Policy No. 02/0000/2026
- b) To outline personnel management measures, controls and policies for Socinga Africa
- c) To display Recruitment and Selection systems for effective and efficient services to clients, consumers, employees.
- d) To adhere to the international standards on maintenance of human resources well being
- e) To outlay transparent measures to Investors on the type of personnel systems and employment processes in the business

2. INTRODUCTIONS

- 2.1 Socinga Africa desires to be a duly business constituted juristic body in terms of the laws of the Republic of South Africa.
- 2.2 Compliant to King V Code the business will establish its activities directed by mainly its written rules, written norms, written standards, written policies all aimed at ensuring it conducts all its business separate from its founding owners.
- 2.3 This policy will be applied in conjunction with Socinga Africa Establishment policy, board of directors and senior executive management decisions from time to time

3. PROVISIONS OF THE POLICY

- 3.1 This policy handles the regulation of worker control and benefit
- 3.2 This policy set forth issues of employment stages as related management
- 3.3 This policy articulates benefits

4. MANDATE OF THE HUMAN RESOURCES

The mandate of this policy is to:

- ❖ Develop Human Resources Policies
- ❖ Give Advice
- ❖ Develop Personnel skills
- ❖ Enforce Discipline

5. LEGAL PROVISIONS

NAME OF LEGISLATION	REFERENCE
Constitution of the Republic of South Africa	Constitution, 1996
Labour Relations Act	Act No, 66 of 1995
Basic Conditions of Employment Act	Act No.75 of 1997
Employment Equity Act	Act No. 55 of 1998
Unemployment Insurance Act	Act No. 63 of 2001
Compensation for Occupational Diseases Act	Act No. 130 of 1993
Occupational Health and Safety Act	Act No. 85 of 1983
Financial sector Regulation Act	Act No. of 2017
Long Term Insurance Act	Act No. 52 of 1998

KEY REFERENCES

INTERNAL DIRECTIVES
Organisational Code of Conduct
Socinga Structural Policy
Board Directives
Occupational Health and Safety Policy
Financial Sector conduct Authority	Issued by the Prudent body

6. STAGES OF EMPLOYMENT

- 6.1 It is important for the business to document its human resources management and clearly display its personnel compliant to Policies and Framework.
- 6.2 We recognise a need for a fair approach in handling the due natural stages of employment within this company for healthy working staff capable of performing to maximum capabilities

A. Pre - Employment Stage

1. Promoting Socinga as company of choice

It must be organised house of pride so much the People of the world and of quality service must dream to provide their valuable skill to it, thus take care of the following:

- a) Proper Branding is solidified by the actions the business towards the society
 - Even if not correct the customers the customer is always right
 - Efforts must be made to take time to listen to the customers needs with perseverance all the time
- b) Full image is promoted by the behavioural conduct of its workers towards clients
 - Respect the client addressing them with politeness at all costs even if shouting at you, never raise your voice.
 - When customer or client not happy must be immediately referred to the Supervisor for assistance
- c) Believe in company image is maintained by quality of company service or product to consumers
 - Provide services exactly as you promised, not subservient works not lesser quality at any time
 - Provide clients a chance to comment on service delivered and ask for their suggestion for better service improvement
- d) Reliance of trust in company image can only be sustained by conduct of company executive leadership
 - Have an open line for customers and clients to know can have their views about business listened to by top executive all the time.
 - The executive must be presentable in appearance and dress code all the time when in public eye
- e) Improvement in technological service and products offering can capture the image
 - Products offered must evolve with digital revolution and technicians be ahead in technology
 - The services must be maintained paperless as possible
 - Research, data collection and training must be maintained all the time
- f) Incentives and remuneration as attractive pillar
 - Staff must be encouraged to be innovative, perform better all the time with incentive package
 - Staff must be given good quality market and industry related payment packages and benefits

2. Clear Display of Socinga Employment Policies

Employment policies belong to the investor, clients, employees, consumers, personnel and the executive to have full understanding of the business in order to make profits therefore handled transparently with care as follows:

2.1 Transparent recruitment and selection policy directives

- Advertisement of available work positions when vacancy emerges

- Disclose employment demographics of the staff in the company website

2.2 Job placements

- Appoint persons compliant to procedure published or made known upon vacancy advertisement
- If the appointment is not through open vacancy publishing process must be through tangible approved procedure by the board
- Employ qualified persons who meet the job requirements strictly and who can add value and profit making to business

2.2.1 Insurance Division

The Managing Director, Director Corporate Services and Insurance line shall give effect to employment of relevant staff required for optimum profitable service.

The recruitment and selection policy and directives will be respected and adhered to.

Recruitment must be in line with the essential requirements of the task and terms of the industry

2.2.2 Mining Division

The Managing Director, CEO, head of corporate services, Chairperson and line shall give effect to employment of relevant staff required for optimum profitable service.

The recruitment and selection policy and directives will be respected and adhered to.

Recruitment must be in line with the essential requirements of the task and terms of the industry

Subject to specific recruitment and selection policy, this service may be outsourced as strategic norms and standards for optimal profit making.

2.2.3 Creative Studios

The Managing Director, CEO and line shall give effect to employment of relevant staff required for optimum profitable service.

The recruitment and selection policy and directives will be respected and adhered to.

Recruitment must be in line with the essential requirements of the task and terms of the industry

2.2.4 Foundation Division

The Managing Director, CEO, Chair and line shall give effect to employment of relevant staff required for optimum profitable service.

The recruitment and selection policy and directives will be respected and adhered to.

Recruitment must be in line with the essential requirements of the task and terms of the industry

2.2.5 Employment Safety Pre employment Screening

Screening of applicants is essential for safety of clients, employees, investor interest, consumers, staff and personnel and must be taken seriously all the time before appointment of any person the following must be carried out:

→ A prescribed form collecting applicants' data is made available on company website

2.2.6 Basic Screening

Short listing of applicants matching their qualifications against advert requirements confirming their details:

- ✓ on Home Affairs,
- ✓ SAPS,
- ✓ Foreign Affairs,
- ✓ SAQA,
- ✓ Interpol,
- ✓ Credit check

2.2.7 Mid employment Screening

Request for personal finger print submission to office by applicant to meet with line and observe compatibility in appearance

Physical Test on claim Eg Psychometric test

Occupational Health Practitioner Medical test where required

2.2.8 Final Screening Employment Screening

Interviewing an applicant to test their skills, capabilities, knowledge, experience and capacity to be able to perform the work profitably

- a. Confidential further screening check with previous 02 (two) employers' reference
- b. If doubt picked up on inconsistent submission conduct background check

B. Post -Employment Stage

1. Confirmation of appointment

- a) Check of budget is confirmed and available to bear all payments on salary and wages
 - ✓ CFO must issue credence through signature confirming money is available by attaching budget print out
- b) Check if correct type of contract is prepared and available
 - ✓ CEO or line must ensure there is a written clear contract for the appointee to sign
- c) Check if the induction date is prepared and the induction team is ready
 - ✓ CEO or line must ensure the induction date is properly planned for the new appointee
- d) Check if there are working teams to receive the appointee until comfortable to can be on services
 - ✓ CEO must organise a team to receive the appointee to work with if available
- e) Check tools and required equipment for the appointee if is in place for issuing and control
 - ✓ CEO must ensure line has prepared tools required for new appointee to perform optimally

2. Validating the appointment of a new employee

Appointment letter of a person for work is legally binding once the contracting party receive it and acknowledged receipt of employment and therefore must be carefully processed as it bears legal Quencequences, therefore:

- ✓ Only the office of the CEO can confirm the appointment of a new appointee
- a) Communicating confirmation of appointment
 - ✓ The office of the Director corporate services is in charge of communications.
 - ✓ The CEO may communicate directly with the appointee and alert the office of the Director Corporate services to have done so.
- b) On boarding the new employee on the company system
 - ✓ No employee shall be on boarded until reported for duty and started to perform duties
 - ✓ The Director Corporate services has the mandate to on board the new appointees for legibility for payments and benefits.

3. Contractual work Appointments

3.1 The contracts in Socinga Africa may differ from division to division due to nature of work, field, practice and discipline

- a) Contract can be for temporary work or permanent nature of employment
- b) Contracts can be for special condition in Memorandum Agreement [MOA]
- c) Agreements in Memorandum of Understanding [MOU] are not recognised in and for purpose of this Policy
- ✓ This policy is for personnel appointed as employees who are under direct supervision, appointments, paid salary in cash or in kind per stipulations expressed in clear written forms of appointment.

3.3.1 Insurance Division

- a) Insurance services is controlled by regulations of the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and its council
- b) The employment contracts for all functionaries in the executive will include binding reference to the requirements of the Act
- c) The employment contracts for the management and employees appointed for the service will reflect conduct for the industry

3.3.2 Type of Contracts

- a) Type of employment contracts will be informed by the nature of needs and operational requirement considering highest Profit making possible as first priority;

3.3.2.1 Term contract

A contract of employment for specific time only and which maybe for any operational requirements

3.3.2.2 Project based contract

- a) A contract specifically for a period of a defined project work;
- ✓ time is not main measurement but specific works,
- ✓ budget availability and
- ✓ certified end of works

3.3.2.3 Standard contract

A contract specifically designed for an unending period due to nature of business operational requirements almost like a permanent employment intent if:

- a) The intention is to employ or enter into possible permanent employment contract for a long time
- b) Remunerate benefits differently from other contracts
- c) Allocate legal agreement terms and conditions of employment to a similar group
- d) A group of employees entitled to be appointed with a business going concern

3.3.2.4 Specialist contract

A contract for a nature of scarce skills performance in which the special terms of agreement are to recognise the following:

- a) Specialist terms and conditions of employment
- b) Specialist working apparatuses
- c) Special form of remuneration within other groups
- d) Requirements for retainer of significant employees to the company

3.3.3 Mining Division

- a) Mining services is controlled by regulations of the statutory Mining Acts and the related bargaining councils
- b) The employment contracts for all functionaries in the executive will include binding reference to the requirements of the Act
- c) The employment contracts for the management and employees appointed for the service will reflect conduct for the industry

3.3.4 Type of Contracts

Type of employment contracts will be informed by the nature of needs and operational requirement considering highest Profit making possible as first priority;

3.3.4.1 Term contract

A contract of employment for specific time only and which maybe for any operational requirements

3.3.4.2 Project based contract

- a) A contract specifically for a period of a defined project work;
 - ✓ time is not main measurement but specific works,
 - ✓ budget availability and
 - ✓ certified end of works

3.3.4.3 Standard contract

A contract specifically designed for an unending period due to nature of business operational requirements almost like a permanent employment intent if:

- a) The intention is to employ or enter into possible permanent employment contract for a long time
- b) Remunerate benefits differently from other contracts
- c) Allocate legal agreement terms and conditions of employment to a similar group

- d) A group of employees entitled to be appointed with a business going concern

3.3.4.4 Specialist contract

A contract for a nature of scarce skills performance in which the special terms of agreement are to recognise the following;

- a) Specialist terms and conditions of employment
- b) Specialist working apparatuses
- c) Special form of remuneration within other groups
- d) Requirements for retainer of significant employees to the company to give effect to Socinga Strategic Policy No. 04/0000/2026

3.3.5 Creative studios media and Broadcasting

Creative Arts, Media and Broadcasting is mainly controlled by regulations of the Films Act and Broadcasting corporation Act

- a) The employment contracts for all functionaries in the executive will include binding reference to the requirements of the Act
- b) The employment contracts for the management and employees appointed for the service will reflect conduct for the industry

3.3.6 Type of Contracts

Type of employment contracts will be informed by the nature of needs and operational requirement considering highest Profit making possible as first priority;

3.3.6.1 Term contract

A contract of employment for specific time only and which maybe for any operational requiements

3.3.6.2 Project based contract

A contract specifically for a period of a defined project work;

- a) time is not main measurement but specific works,
- b) budget availability and
- c) certified end of works

3.3.6.3 Standard contract

A contract specifically designed for an unending period due to nature of business operational requirements almost like a permanent employment intent if:

- a) The intention is to employ or enter into possible permanent employment contract for a long time
- b) Remunerate benefits differently from other contracts
- c) Allocate legal agreement terms and conditions of employment to a similar group
- d) A group of employees entitled to be appointed with a business going concern

3.3.6.4 Specialist contract

A contract for a nature of scarce skills performance in which the special terms of agreement are to recognise the following:

- a) Specialist terms and conditions of employment or
- b) Memorandum of Understanding [MOU] is concluded to give effect to provisions of Policy No. 01/0000/2026
- c) Specialist working apparatuses
- d) Special form of remuneration within other groups
- e) Requirements for retainer of significant employees to the company

3.3.7 Foundation Corporate Social Investment

Foundation services is controlled by regulations of the statutory provisions in the Consumer Protection Act

- a) The employment contracts for all functionaries in the executive will include binding reference to the requirements of the Act
- b) The employment contracts for the management and employees appointed for the service will reflect conduct for the industry

3.3.8 Type of Contracts

Type of employment contracts will be informed by the nature of needs and operational requirement considering highest Profit making possible as first priority;

3.3.8.1 Term contract

A contract of employment for specific time only and which maybe for any operational requirents

3.3.8.2 Project based contract

A contract specifically for a period of a defined project work;

- a) time is not main measurement but specific works,
- b) budget availability and
- c) certified end of works

3.3.8.3 Standard contract

A contract specifically designed for an unending period due to nature of business operational requirements almost like a permanent employment intent if:

- a) The intention is to employ or enter into possible permanent employment contract for a long time
- b) Remunerate benefits differently from other contracts
- c) Allocate legal agreement terms and conditions of employment to a similar group
- d) A group of employees entitled to be appointed with a business going concern

3.3.8.4 Specialist contract

A contract for a nature of scarce skills performance in which the special terms of agreement are to recognise the following:

- a) Specialist terms and conditions of employment
- b) Specialist working apparatuses
- c) Special form of remuneration within other groups
- d) Requirements for retainer of significant employees to the company to give effect to Socinga Strategic Policy No. 04/0000/2026

3.3.9 The Executive Authority

- a. The executing authority is the highest decision making body comprised of the Executive board and its chairperson.
- b. The functions of the board and its mandate are deriving its existence and powers from the Socinga Africa establishment policy
- c. The board is supreme governance structure as a business body per the constitution of the republic of South Africa 1996 and subsequent business operations arrangements with Socinga Mgabadeli Pty Ltd permitting it to trade as per its independent juristic mandate

3.3.9.1 Type of contract

- a. The type of contracts with the board members maybe concluded per directives in recognisable legal instruments in Socinga Africa Establishment policy 01/0000/2026
- b. Agreement for services with members of the board maybe concluded per Memorandum of Agreement [MOU] entered into with the managing Director of Socinga Africa being Ms Jabulile Dladla
- c. Further an ordinary contractual binding legal employment agreement maybe entered into and concluded to appoint members of the board on clear specific terms and conditions.

3.3.9.2 Term contract

- a. A contract of employment for specific time only and which maybe for any operational requirements
- b. The contractual agreement may be perpetual in nature due to a specified Socinga Africa hand book for Board members to be issued on the approval of the board itself

3.3.10 The External functionaries

These are experienced persons of enormous exposure in business to assist with external relations insisting on brokerage of perfect image on services bench marked on lack of such personnel in the immediate contractual employment.

3.3.10.1 Type of contract

Head hunting concluded in a service level agreement utilising a Memorandum of Understanding.

- a. These functionaries may be serving in other institutions or owning some institutions accepted by the board
- b. The persons so entered into agreement with draws no salary other than a commission on the project based agreement and term

3.3.11 Performance Management Development Systems

It is important to appoint the staff and personnel that have terms and conditions of service able to be measured with the scientific professional system that is open, fair, and transparent in goals and objectives of activities

3.3.11.1 Measuring work performance

- a. The performance management development system will be expressed in a written form where Duties are measured against each activity of a Key performance Area that follows the work objectives measured on time and indicators so as remuneration of salaries are not in vain.
- b. Therefore the policy must be borne from Key Performance Indicators within the structure as baseline of Key performance area in a Simple Measurable Achievable Reliable Transparent form

3.3.11.2 Effect of performance measurement

The performance management system will drive profitability and necessity to remunerate fairly or penalise the affected employee or staff members in the following areas;

3.3.11.3 Promotions

- a. Promotions will come with incentive within either of the occurrence following:
- b. A vacancy exists and there is a need to appoint a person into that vacancy which could results in higher position or better income from the currently occupied post
- c. A company decides to promote persons who are in a dedicated employment for a lengthy period of over five years in the same position if can afford to carry them reliably for at least another coming five years period with benefits consistently.

3.3.11.4 Working Time

3.3.11.5 Personnel and employees respecting a working time by

- a. Respecting the work time at all times
- b. Not misusing the employment time in an errand manner
- c. Conducting themselves in a manner that do not inconveniences or disrupts the working arrangements of the company towards clients, consumers, customers, visitors,

3.3.11.6 Training

- a. Attend to committed training internally and learn the new or maintenance of acquired skill
- b. Take training seriously to upgrade their skill
- c. Employees able to measure poor or good performance that require training intervention

3.3.11.7 Regular assessments

At least 4 times a year a supervisory assessment of the employees can take place

- a. To ensure there is quality provision of services
- b. To ensure there is betterment on performance
- c. To ensure there is betterment of staff and employees personal growth

3.3.12 Remuneration

- a. Payments of benefits encourages performance and dedication to work at times even devoted personnel to the company so much they become a promotion of good image to the entire outside world.
- b. The salaries should be structured in a manner compatible to each industry requirements and practices in relation to computation of salary

3.3.12.1 Salary day

- a. The salary day can be per completion of task or per day or per week or per fortnight or per month
- b. The pay day dates will be determined by the type of industry
- c. The directives on salary structures will be raised by the CEO and table to the board for approval
- d. The salaries must be industry competitive as, seek to assist in staff retainer and drive the image of Socinga Africa as employee of choice

3.3.12.2 Incentives

- a. Over above ordinary pay day salary, incentive pay in a form of commission is allowed to employees performing over above ordinary.
- b. This incentive will be structured by the CEO and approved by the Managing director after consultation with the board

3.3.12.3 Insurance Division

3.3.12.4 Salaries

- a. Carried out per the conduct of the insurance industry
- b. Reflection of payment will follow on recorded employment contract
- c. Some work appointment may be verbal especially on marketing staff if approved by the Managing Director

3.3.12.5 Incentives

- a. Incentives can be an agreed commission; Or

- b. A special awarded performance bonus

3.3.12.6 Mining Division

3.3.12.7 Salaries

- a. The salaries will follow international standard of payments and remuneration benefits in the industry.
- b. These payments of salaries may vary in nature of work and contractual terms
- c. Profitability of the mining division should take precedence.

3.3.12.8 Incentives

- a. CEO must find and develop some incentive structure which can be in a form of bonus payment
- b. The incentive scheme should be about rewarding excellence to team work
Eg. Achieving a safely working milieu without incidents [lets say 1000000 working hours]
- c. The incentive scheme should take place if the company is profitable in its works.

3.3.12.9 Creative studios media and Broadcasting

3.3.12.10 Salaries

- a. Salaries must follow the industry practices and standards
- b. Media benefits must be carefully crafted on specific work contracts for a specific role
- c. You may have two similar roles at different levels earning differently

3.3.12.11 Incentives

Incentives must be created as talent base performance measurement not generic

3.3.12.12 Foundation

3.3.12.13 Salaries

- a. Benefits, wages and salaries should be structured to make success of project and company profitability
- b. Salaries must always be left open for negotiations and renegotiations by the company

- c. The salary clause in the contractual agreement should reflect this liquidity position otherwise this policy overrides any exclusion by intent or error in any employment contract.
- d. Incentives
- e. Incentives must be high enough to can invite and attract talent in ordinary hand crafts based works, Gardening designs and horticultural sculpting

3.3.13 Discipline

- a. Discipline is an integral part of the working place and work floor institution to achieve its maximum performance and profit making achievements.
- b. Discipline should not be a punitive measure but corrective in nature.
- c. Discipline process will be handled by Human Resources assisted by Industrial relations in a principle of Employees relations norms than just industrial management
- d. Discipline seeks to deal with and handle behavioural misconduct of staff, employees in general, and personnel in general in a process of recognised subordinates within the line on these areas;

3.3.13.1 Warnings

- a. One of the basic and fundamental powers in the hands of the disciplining authority being supervisory management is the issuing of either written or verbal warning to an employee who transgresses for the first time on an offence that may be carrying minor penalty.
- b. Repetitive minor offence and or rather serious offence may results in issuing of written warning or final written warning
- c. All warnings including verbal warnings must be recorded on the file of the employee after have been brought to his or her knowledge and signed for its acknowledgement.

3.3.13.2 Demotion

One of the basic and fundamental powers in the hands of the disciplining authority being supervisory management is the issuance of demotion as progressive discipline by recommending a disciplinary process with the outcome to demote the transgressor if the behavioural conduct is so adverse in that it has a potential to;

- a. Tarnish the image of the business
- b. Results in a minor financial loss to a company
- c. The minor offence of warning procedural penalty will not befit rectifying the behaviour
- d. The CEO shall receive the recommendation which the the Managing Director can be the confirming authority after hearing the matter.

- e. The chairperson of the board may become an appeal authority within 5 days of receiving the complaint

3.3.13.3 Expulsion

One of the basic measures important to progressive discipline against serious transgressions in the hands of senior management is Expulsion which may take the following form

3.3.13.4 Suspension

- a. The employee whose actions are of insubordination, violation of an established code of conduct, acts of crimes, acts of negligence, acts of violence, acts of defiance, acts related to theft and all acts listed or not in any form that can affect the company shall receive heavy punishment and no minor penalty other than the following
- b. Three months suspension without payment; Or
- c. Dismissal in a disciplinary process subject to post hearing; or
- d. Summary Dismissal applicable with immediate decision by the chairperson of the board

3.3.13.5 Transfer as precaution

- a. Transfer of any employee can take place as a precautionary measure when the alleged transgression so serious may require investigations before allegations are confirmed especially cases related to complaints of sexual harassment.
- b. In the event precautionary transfer is not possible due to operational requirements, the alleged transgressor may be sent to work from home with or without pay

3.3.14 Disciplinary process

- a. For discipline to be fair it must reflect the principle of justice in the workplace and this must be articulated in a written process to be known by everyone in the working environment including investors, employees, management, personnel, staff, visitors and any interested person.
- b. The process must be outlined in the disciplinary code of conduct

3.3.15 Disciplinary procedure

- a. For discipline to be fair, the disciplinary procedure must have a clear procedure which ensures the principle of justice are achieved of which the minimum in this policy must Openly display the following;
 - i. Open hearing

- ii. Independent chairperson
- iii. Provision of adequate time to prepare for hearing
 - b. Serving a charge sheet to alleged transgressor with clear reasons for disciplinary charges, time and place of hearing (if any) and right to representation by a third party
 - c. The right to have access to evidence and any records to be used against as evidence prior the hearing
 - d. The procedure must be outlined in a disciplinary code or policy

3.3.16 The code of conduct

- a. The code of conduct is an important document that can ensure that discipline is enforceable in a fair and just manner.
- b. The code of conduct will be drafted indicating minimum behaviours that can be punishable, the procedure and the sanction.
- c. While the code of conduct not yet in place this policy will serve as a guide

3.3.17 Breaking the Code

Breaking the code of conduct is regarded a serious offence and shall be punishable with adverse results.

3.3.18 Transgressions inviting official discipline

3.3.18.1 Charge Sheet

- a. When any employee committed actions that call for official discipline shall mean any action which cannot be disciplines by evoking a Warning.
- b. For this type of behavioural conduct a formal charge sheet must be issued stating all the charges as alleged.
- c. No employee in this instance must be issued with sanctions without fair, just, open and proper hearing.
- d.

3.3.18.2 Hearing

Hearing must be conducted in a professional manner in which the complainant cannot be a player and the referee at the same time in that the following role players must be present;

- a) The presiding officer
- b) The initiator
- c) The witnesses
- d) The accused
- e) The accused representatives of choice
- f) The witnesses from either side
- g) All seated and converged in the same room at the same process

3.3.18.3 Outcome

- a. Disciplinary hearing shall be first communicated with the affected party being the employee especially when the results are adverse; notifying him or her in writing with proof of undoubtful receipt then files it with the employees file notifying the chairperson of the board to have done so.
- b. This must be done within 5 working days
- c. The notice must inform the employee of his or her rights of appeal by notifying Managing Director within 48 hours and submitting the appeal documents with the chairperson within 10 working days
- d. This must be done within five working days

3.3.18.4 Implementation of an outcome of hearing

- a. Upon the notification of the Managing Director about the outcome in the form of a sanction without receiving notification within of intent to appeal the sanction 48 hours of receipt, the sanction will be given effect.
- b. The time of compliance shall be observed strictly

3.3.18.5 Appealing the decision of the hearing

- a. The chairperson is the appeal authority and has the right to appoint any independent official as an appeal officer
- b. The appeal must be finalised within five days of receipt of appeal records and which results must be communicated in writing.

3.3.19 Finalisation of disciplinary outcome

Finalisation of the appeal outcome will be by filing the entire record and save it in the office responsible for keeping the record at least for five years

3.3.19.1 Insurance Division

- a. Insurance division may be assisted by corporate services to conduct the disciplinary process
- b. The disciplinary outcome will be implemented by the Managing Director or CEO

3.3.19.2 Mining Division

- a. Mining division may be assisted by Employee relations to conduct the disciplinary process
- b. Reason being that the industry is highly unionised with interwoven various bargaining councils
- c. The disciplinary outcome will be implemented by CEO

3.3.19.3 Creative studios media and Broadcasting

- a. Creative studios and Broadcasting division may be assisted by corporate services to conduct the disciplinary process
- b. The disciplinary outcome will be implemented by the Head of Studios.

3.3.19.4 Foundation

- a. Foundation division may be assisted by corporate services to conduct the disciplinary process
- b. The Disciplinary Process will be implemented by the Managing Director

3.3.20 Legislation and Laws

The legislation and laws of the country forms an integral part of our company and particularly Human Resources management Policies, Directives and Instructions, all divisions are expected to observe them in the following manner;

3.3.20.1 Insurance Division

- a. Always take care of what is best compliance with the legislation pertaining to its activities.
- b. Check what is in the best interest of the company
- c. Apply policies in conjunction with the law governing insurance industry

3.3.20.2 Mining Division

- a. Always take care of what is best compliance with the legislation pertaining to its activities.
- b. Check what is in the best interest of the company
- c. Apply policies in conjunction with the law governing mining industry
- d. Must do its best to liaise and obtain regular advice from corporate services specialists

3.3.20.3 Creative studios media and Broadcasting

- a. Always take care of what is best compliance with the legislation pertaining to its activities.
- b. Check what is in the best interest of the company
- c. Apply policies in conjunction with the law governing creative studios, media and broadcasting industry

3.3.20.4 Foundation

- a. Always take care of what is best compliance with the legislation pertaining to its activities.
- b. Check what is in the best interest of the company
- c. Apply policies in conjunction with the law governing foundation industry

3.3.21 Classifications of level of Employment

The following positions are exemplary of Socinga Africa Company hierarchy of Power;

3.3.21.1 Board of Directors

Governs over entire corporate structure of Socinga Africa

3.3.21.2 Executing Management

Governs over specific division subject to control by Socinga Board of Directors

3.3.21.3 Senior Management

Manages specific divisional units subject to the directives from line

3.3.21.4 Junior Management

Supervisory personnel in the implementation stage of works accountable to junior management and or line

3.3.21.5 Support staff

All employees in the entry level of work in each division per type of work irrespective of the significance on the employment level or position

3.3.22 Training and development

- a. Training schedule must be made available planned properly for each performance period
- b. The plan must be in place to informing the budget

- c. Performance management system will identify and spot talent of personnel thereby hugely influence training validation

C. Exit - Employment Stage

- 1. End of work relationship is common cause therefore inevitable however proper management is required for a company to remain healthy, keep its clients, its consumers, its customers, its employees, its staff, its personnel, its workers and its brand intact. This company must ensure preparations in handling the following events;

1.1 Resignation

- a. This is recognised stage on ending employment relationship and must be initiated by the employee by issuing a written Notice
- b. Employees who issues a month long resignation notice time are encouraged and lose no benefits
- c. Employees who issues less a month notice and not less than 15 days accepted, may lose voluntary benefits and maybe employable back to this company in the future
- d. Employees who issues seven working days period are welcomed but loses most benefits including end termination benefits
- e. Employees who issues less seven working days notice loses all benefits

1.2 Termination

Termination of employment may come in two folds;

1.2.1 Abscondment

Where employee not reporting at work without permission, disappears, abandons work, not intending to come back to work after full 15 days of not being reporting for duty

Employee must have been issued with notice to come back to work but refused to do so

1.2.2 Dessertion

When the employee leaves work without permission, abandons duties with intention not to return to work and not to come back.

1.3 Dismissal

- a. It is a termination of employment following Disciplinary process within the legitimate disciplinary process.

- b. When a person is dismissed, all his or her benefits due must be released within 48 hours but not later than seven working days

1.3 Medical illness

- a. Medical illness or condition may lead to the End of work relationship if;
 - i. It hinders the employee from exercising his or her work as expected
 - ii. If there is no post to place the employee in another alternative work function, the employee may be released with full benefits

1.4 Death

- a. Death is an unfortunate event that terminates the employment relationship in the journey of life and must be handled as follows; And
- b. After coming to know about the passing away of an employee the matter must be brought to the attention of Director Corporate Services to:
 - i. Officially confirm the information if it is true
 - ii. Inform the board immediately with circumstances around the deceased information
 - iii. Liaise with the family and nominated beneficiaries if there are any
 - iv. Inform the company employees through the office of the Managing Director
 - v. Follow the Directives from the chairperson of the Board through the board itself
 - vi. Benefits re not withheld in any manner except setting off debt the employee had in moneys due to the company

1.5 End of contract

- a. This happens by effluxion of time and no permanent employment expectation should be created
- b. The contract must be managed effectively so as 15 days prior the expiry of contract and before the contract ends all benefits due must have been communicated with the personnel so affected.

1.6 Retrenchment

- a. Retrenchment may become a real event where the company survival is left with no any other option than laying off the employees
- b. This must be handled with the approval of the board which must receive a report with full clear reasons and proof of consultation process by and from the following offices;

1.6.1 CEO

- 1.6.2 Director corporate Services
- 1.6.3 Managing Director
- 1.6.4 Chief Financial Officer

7. POLICY REVIEW

1. This policy must be reviewed at least every 2 years by the board initiated by the CEO assisted by Corporate services

Duly Signed and Approved:

Date:

Managing Director
Chairperson

CEO